

Africa

Music by Christian Willisohn

Lyrics by Alexandra Mayer

Come let the rhythm take you away come let this rhythm take you away.

touch the beauty of this land.
see the red earth, feel the sand.
hear the rhythm of the jungle.
let it make you roll and rumble.
the spirit will take you higher
It will set your soul on fire.
lead your children by the hand.

drums are beatin` through the night hounds are howling out of sight.
the moonlight shows us the way
we escape the world today
we´re dancing wild and wilder
our feet get light and lighter Africa save our souls and hold us tight.
