

Macho Man

Music by Christian Willisohn

Lyrics by Claas Vogt

I met her in the usual places
The ones that I used to go
She said her say and I said mine
And the rest well I'm sure you know.

We went to my or her place
And she turned off the light
Maybe I left an hour later
Or maybe I stayed all night

I'm taking my chance of love now
I'm doing the best I can
I was down so much that I lost count
But I think I'm on top again.

I met her again just a week ago
Or was it yesterday?
I didn't care if she broke my heart
Or things just went their way.

We are happy ever since
And love will never die
She left me or I left her
Good-bye don't mean good-bye.

I'm taking my chance of love now
I'm doing the best I can
I was down so much that I lost count
But I think I'm on top again.
