

No Mission But You

Music by Christian Willisohn

Lyrics by Alexandra Mayer

Just when I thought I'd die in pain somebody said, you cry in vain my heart's locked in a prison and I never had a mission, but you don't forget, Babe, where I am is where you got me to.

yearnin' for more feelings, I stumble 'round in a fog I was down in the dumps, led the life of a dog
don't forget, Babe, where I am is where you got me to.*

the moment I was dying, up to me you came with keys in your hands, you gave me back my life again
don't forget, Babe, where I am is where you got me to.*

you made me a new man, you opened up the door you gave me new hope, don't have to search no more
don't forget, Babe, where I am is where you got me to.*
