

Rain

Music by Christian Willisohn

Lyrics by Alexandra Mayer

When I woke up this morning
Heard the rain come pouring down
Couldn't go back to sleep
So I got up and went into town.

People out in the streets
Seemed to suffer from the rain
Could it freeze all their faces
Wanna see them smile again

*Take me make me feel the sun.
Take me make me feel the sun.*

All the world is dark and grey
No single color to be seen
How I'm longing for the day
When the trees return to green.

Come on Lord, remove the clouds
Let the sun shine down again
Give a smile back to the crowd
Take away that bloody rain

*Take me make me feel the sun.
Take me make me feel the sun.
Take me make me feel the sun.*
